

Sarah's Law Disclosure Requests have gone online!

What is Sarah's Law?

Sarah's Law is the Child Sex Offender Disclosure scheme, which allows anyone to formally ask the police if someone who has access to a child has a child sexual offences record

When did it go live?

Go Live for online applications was Thursday 20th June 2019

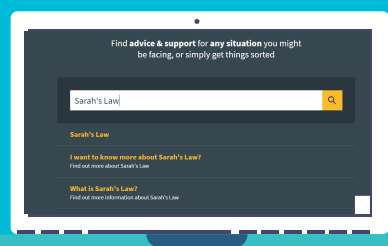

Since the 20th June 2019, 57% of the requests received have been via our online channel!

Why have West Midlands Police done this?

to make our services more accessible to vulnerable members of the public

How can a member of the public make a disclosure request?

By going to WMP Online and searching for Sarah's Law

By calling 101

By visiting a front office at a Police Station

What we need our Partner Agencies to do?

Although there will be a wider communications campaign in the future we really need you to promote this with the members of public you come in contact with

This does not replace existing child protection arrangements and if partners have concerns then they should follow their own agencies procedures
